A Shop Lifter Arrested.

Yesterday a chap was detected in taking from the store of A. Smith & Son, a piece of silk worth twenty dollars. He had secreted it under his coat and gone out before the goods were missed, upon which Mr. Wilber Smith sent a boy in pursuit of him, and called officer Buxton who succeeded in his arrest. The fellow denied the charge, but on tracing out his tortuous windings about town, the silk was at last discovered in a pile of lumber down the alley by the Bakery.

He pleaded guilty on the discovery of the silk and was sent to Jail for thirty days. On searching the fellow's trunk, it was found filled with new clothing, not suited to his use, and most probably stolen. It is believed that he had accomplices, and our citizens should look well to keep all things secure from such visitors.

Dr. H. makes no secret of their composition; he furnishes all physicians in good standing with the receipt of their ingredients, and with the Pills, sugar coated, by the point.

Among all medicine manufacturers, Dr. Herrick stands in Medical knowledge and medical responsibility, unapproached. As Spring is upon us, and hot weather expected, and a few doses of Herrick's Matchless Pills.—[Dunder Record.]

PHYSICIANS USE THEM.

Dr. C. T. Pomeroy, of Baltimore, M. D., is a note to Dr. Herrick, says: I have tested your purgative Sugar Coated Pills in a variety of diseases, and find them superior to any cathartic I ever used. My customers, particularly the female portion, have fallen in love with them, and frequently ask me to give them the Sugar Coated Pill. Your discovery in coating a pill with sugar should immortalize your name, and I doubt not your invention will be handed down to future posterity as a discovery worthy the day in which we live.
